

1. The Dragon's Customer Service Call

Genre: Fantasy Comedy

Age Range: 16-40

Length: 30-60 Seconds

Emotional Themes: Confusion, irritation, absurd authority

Scene Description:

A knight tries to report a dragon problem, only to discover the kingdom's bureaucracy is more terrifying than the dragon itself.

Monologue:

I called the Royal Beast Hotline expecting urgency. Fire. Alarm. Panic. Instead, I got transferred. Twice. By the time I reached Dragon Support, the receptionist asked if I had tried restarting the kingdom. Restarting. The kingdom. I said, "There is a dragon currently eating the eastern farmland," and she replied, "Have you logged it online?" Logged it? It's breathing on my crops right now! Then she asked for the dragon's reference number. A reference number. As if it introduced itself before burning villages. Honestly, I think the dragon is more available than your customer service. At least it shows up when called.
