

10. The Prophecy That Keeps Updating Itself

Genre: Fantasy Drama-Comedy

Age Range: 16-30

Length: 30-60 Seconds

Emotional Themes: Destiny, uncertainty, frustration

Scene Description:

A chosen one struggles to follow a prophecy that keeps changing every few weeks.

Monologue:

When I was born, the prophecy said I would defeat the darkness. Then it updated. Suddenly it said I would probably defeat the darkness, depending on circumstances. Last week it changed again. Now it says I may or may not defeat the darkness, but I will definitely experience personal growth. Personal growth? I trained my whole life to save the world. At this point, destiny feels less like a sacred vision and more like software that's still in beta testing.
