Scene Description

Zack pretends he knows how to fix Lina's broken laptop... despite knowing absolutely nothing about tech. Lina slowly realizes he's making everything up but plays along to expose him.

LINA: You said you "know computers."

ZACK: I didn't say know. I said... understand them emotionally.

LINA: That's not a thing.

ZACK: It is for advanced users.

LINA: My laptop won't turn on.

ZACK: Classic emotional shutdown.

LINA: It's dead.

ZACK: It's resting.

LINA: Zack.

ZACK: Okay fine, let me diagnose it.

LINA: You just pressed the power button.

ZACK: That's step one of diagnosis.

LINA: No it's not.

ZACK: It is in my system.

(Beat)

LINA: What system?

ZACK: The... Zack Operating System.

LINA: That explains everything.

ZACK: Thank you.

LINA: That was sarcasm.

ZACK: I detected admiration.

LINA: You're just guessing.

ZACK: So are you.

LINA: I know you don't know what you're doing.

ZACK: I know exactly what I'm doing.

LINA: Fix it then.

ZACK: I'm building suspense.
